Training for PG student in Presentation Skill

Pantnagar. 9 November, 2009. A training on presentation skill for students was organized by Department of Agriculture Communication for the postgraduate students of University Dr. B. Kumar, Professor & Head of Agriculture Communication congratulated students for expressing the need for communication skills. In this era of cut-throat competition students need to be refine their presentation skills. It is not what you say but how you say that matters. Dr. Shivender Kashyap, Associate Professor emphasized on the importance of poise and confidence daring presentation. As in like so in presentation, controlled communication does wonders. The training focused on anxiety training, relaxation exercise, systematic techniques of preparation and handling question and answer. The whole programme was organized by postgraduate student of the department. They played active role in conducting ice-breaking excises and management of training. At the end of the training the students felt excited to share their experiences. They expressed need for more training especially in preparation of power points, verbal & non- verbal communication and platform etiquettes. The programme ended with group song with lightened candle in their hands.
