

Golden Jubilee Hostel, GBPUA&T, Pantnagar Celebrated “Uttarakhand Foundation Day” on 7 November 2017

Golden Jubilee Hostel celebrated 17th “Uttarakhand Foundation Day” on 9 November 2017. Uttarakhand Foundation Day is celebrated every year on 9th November. It was the day of 9th November 2000 when Uttarakhand was formed after dividing Uttar Pradesh and it became 27th state of Republic of India. Permission to organize this programme in the hostel was obtained from concerned authorities Chief Warden, Dr. A. K. Shukla and Dean Student Welfare, Dr. S. P. Singh.

On the eve of Uttarakhand Foundation Day, a series of programmes viz; Poster competition, Quiz competition and Cultural programme were organized by Hostel Warden, Dr. Arpita Sharma.

The cultural programme was inaugurated by Chief Guests, Additional Dean Student Welfare, Dr. Jyoti Prasad and Dr. J. L. Singh. The celebration began with lighting of lamp. Warden, Dr. Arpita Sharma welcomed the guests. A welcome song was presented by the hostel students. Participants recited self composed poetry, speeches and power point presentation on Uttarakhand Foundation day.

Additional Dean Student Welfare, Dr. Jyothi Prasad heartily congratulated all the students and staff of hostel on “Uttarakhand Foundation Day”. She said that we should contribute in building such a society, such a nation where all sections of society get equal opportunities. This effort of ours will be a true tribute to the great martyrs and revolutionaries who gave us Independence. She appreciated the efforts put in by the Warden, Assistant warden and Students to come up with a simple and wonderful celebration of Uttarakhand Foundation Day.

Dr. J. L. Singh, Additional Dean Student Welfare congratulated all the hostel students and staff on Uttarakhand Foundation Day. He said that all round development of the hilly areas of Uttarakhand is the biggest challenge. Thus, we all should contribute for the development of our State as well as for Nation.

Hostel Warden, Dr. Arpita Sharma, organizer of programme said that women play a very important role in the social as well as economic development of our Uttarakhand. She motivated the hostel students that we should pay special attention to enhance our capacities and skills so that we all can help in the development of our Nation. Our small contribution will help to improve our state as well as our country.

The programme concluded by vote of thanks given by Warden, Dr. Arpita Sharma.
