

OFFICE OF THE UNIVERSITY NODAL OFFICER, E-GOVERNANCE

No. UNO/FB/02

Dated: 23.01.2019

Office Memorandum

The first initiative in the direction of automating services of this university was started in 2010, when the registration of the students was made online. Later on, examination scheduling and grade submission was also being done using computers. In 2015, NIC was entrusted the task of developing "Integrated Financial Management Software (IFMS)". Under IFMS, 23 modules were being developed to automate the services of this university. Now, it is the need of the hour to initiate e-governance vigorously for the transparent, responsive, accountable, effective and efficient management of this university. The aim is to achieve complete automation of records and services for making paperless offices of the university. It is desired to automate the university applications to such an extent to get the 'gbpuat' app developed on the pattern of SBI 'YONO' and others to provide all the relevant information, records and processes of the university at a single platform to all the stakeholders of the university.

It is in this background, all the officers, teachers, staff and students of this university are requested to provide their valuable feedback on the existing state of affairs (1) on account of automation of records and services in the university and (2) on colleges and university websites.

Please logon the following URL to access different records and services of this university to provide the valuable feedback / suggestions on or before 31.01.2019.
