

“Bijay K. Singh Go for the Gold Award”

Bijay K. Singh, Id No. 5935, an alumnus of 1972 batch, received B. Sc. Ag. and M. Sc. Ag. degrees from the College of Agriculture, Pantnagar (5/5 CGPA in both degrees) and Ph.D. from the University of Adelaide, Australia. He has additional research experience from the University of California, Davis, and Princeton University, USA. He spent over 30 years at American Cyanamid Company/BASF and retired as the administrative leader of the entire research team in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. Dr. Singh is the author/editor of over 100 patents, journal articles, reviews, book chapters, and books. He has been on the editorial board of multiple journals and has organized many international symposia. He was involved in the discovery, development and marketing of over 15 different products that continue to be sold globally. For his contributions, Dr. Singh has received multiple awards and recognitions from within the company as well as from external organizations.

Bijay K. Singh and his family have established “Bijay K. Singh Go for the Gold Award” for the students of College of Agriculture. The purpose of this award is to encourage students to excel in their studies and strive for the Gold Medals that are awarded following completion of B.Sc. Ag. degree. Hopefully, their perseverance and hard work put towards achieving this goal will become a habit and help them to be the best that they can be throughout their life.

This award includes a certificate and a cash award of Rs. 10,000/student. A total of 10 awards will be given each year. The selection criteria will be only on the basis of CGPA. The highest CGPA holders (5 from 2nd year, 3 from 3rd year and 2 from 4th year) will receive this award from the Alumni Alma mater Advancement Association (4A) of Pantnagar University.