

"Adamyia," The Ag Nite organised by the College of Agriculture, amid great enthusiasm, joy, and a dignified atmosphere.

17 May 2026. The Ag Nite "Adamyia" was inaugurated by Vice- Chancellor Dr. Shivendra Kumar Kashyap, the chief guest. Along with him, the presence of several senior and distinguished officials from the University and College graced the event. Special guests included Dr. Subhash Chandra (Dean, College of Agriculture), Dr. Vipin Chandra Dhyani (Dean, Student Welfare), Dr. Alka Goyal (Dean, College of Community Sciences), Dr. J.P. Jaiswal (Director of Communications), Dr. Ajit Kapoor (Professor, Department of Horticulture), Dr. K.P. Rawerkar (Professor, Department of Soil Science), and Dr. Rashmi Panwar, Associate Staff Counselor. The inspiring presence of all these dignitaries energized the atmosphere.

In his address, the Chief Guest expressed his delight at the energetic performance of various cultural programs by the students and stated that such programs not only provide an opportunity to work as a team but also develop leadership skills, and this culture must go on for allround personality development with a filling of rejoicing the hostel life in the University.

Prior to this grand closing ceremony, a wide range of programs and competitions were organized under "Adamyia" between May 3 and May 16.

The Chief Guest and other officials honored the winners of various intellectual, sports, and cultural competitions held during "Agriculture Week" with medals and certificates. In their addresses on this occasion, the guests encouraged the students to continuously perform better, to advance their inherent talents, and to contribute to nation-building.

In addition, the various sub-committees of the Agriculture Committee and their dedicated members were specially honored for their unparalleled dedication, excellent work ethic, and invaluable contributions to the Institute throughout the year

The programme not only concluded with a celebratory end but also left the students with a new energy, inspiration and determination to move towards their bright future.

